Are you OVER-SCHEDULED?

Many music teachers teach 30-40 different classes a week, perform/conduct ensembles before/after school, perform/conduct with ensembles outside of school, run the marching band on nights & weekends, teach private lessons, prepare students for auditions, direct the school musical, serve on curriculum committees and more - before they go home to their families.

What other teacher at your school does that?

What part of your job takes time away from actually teaching?

What would you do with more time with your students?

Do you enjoy administrivia?

How can technology help?
